DE ZARAGOZA

An exhibition created by Lyon BD Festival
Curated by Jean-Christophe Deveney

Exhibition “En cualquier lugar excepto en Ítaca” about Hugo Pratt’s character Corto Maltese is coming with Centro de Historias de Zaragoza to Spain.

In 2012 Patrizia Zanotti, Hugo Pratt’s collaborator and owner of the Corto Maltese’s publication rights, and publisher of the «Blacksad» Italian version of «Blacksad», proposed Juan Diaz Canales to continue the adventures of the Maltese seaman.

EN CUALQUIER LUGAR EXCEPTO EN ÍTACA CORTO MALTES

Centro de Historias de Zaragoza & Contemporanea present “Anywhere except Ithaca. Corto Maltese”, an exhibition created by Lyon BD Festival and curated by Jean-Christophe Deveney. Scenarist Juan Diaz Canales and cartoonist Ruben Pellejero guide us across the path of the everlasting traveler called Corto Maltese in this exhibition, questioning what happen if Corto was a landscape, a scene, a music or, even, a perfume. The adventures of the character created by Hugo Pratt are coming with these two Spanish well-known authors in two new albums: “Under the Midnight Sun” and “Equatoria”.

So, this exhibition celebrates the intimate relationship between a character and the creators. Through original pages, sketches, working guides, notes, interviews, an original soundtrack, an audioguide and perfumes, the audience is invited to enjoy the Corto Maltese adventures.

So, close your eyes and let yourself sorrounded by the sound, the aroma and the sights of Corto Maltese world. Corto is here again!
